5 Audit Planning and reporting	The annual internal audit plan properly takes account of all the risks facing the council and has been approved by the council. Internal auditor has submitted report in accordance with the plan.

Part 2 – Characteristics of Effectiveness

Characteristics of 'effectiveness'	Evidence of Achievement	Yes or No	Areas for development
Internal audit work is planned	Planned internal audit work is based on risk assessment and designed to meet the council's needs.
Understanding the whole organisation its needs and objectives	The annual audit plan demonstrates how audit work will provide assurance for the council's Annual Governance Statement.
Be seen as a catalyst for change	Internal audit supports the council's work in delivering improved services to the community.
Add value and assist the organisation in achieving its objectives	The council makes positive responses to the Internal Auditor's recommendations and follows up action where called for.
Be forward looking	In formulating the annual audit plan, national agenda changes are considered. Internal audit maintains awareness of new developments in the services, risk management and corporate governance.
Be challenging	Internal audit focuses on risks facing the council. Internal audit encourages managers/members to develop their own responses to risks, rather than relying solely on audit recommendations.
Ensure the right resources are available	Adequate resource is made available for the Internal Auditor to complete her work. Internal Auditor understands the body and the legal and corporate framework in which it operates.
